in 2025 i have rewritten the chapter the sovereignty of god and reprobation this is a systematic discourse of the reformed theology it came to life when i was reading arthur pink s book the sovereignty of god he opened my eyes to really see who god is systematically we are going through what we can understand as the purpose of god via chapters scripture the triune god the names of god the attributes of god man the fall the sovereignty of god with many sub chapters where we explore the providence of god the decree of god election the atonement and justification regeneration and faith in christ sanctification and transformation reprobation and the perseverance of the saints scripture is the foundation for everything i write although many people today reject christianity for intellectual reasons greater numbers of people are rejecting christianity because it does not engage their imagination christians must not only demonstrate that the christian worldview is true but that it is also good beautiful and relevant the good news of the return of the king the gospel in middle earth is a book that endeavors to show the truth goodness and beauty of jesus christ the gospel and the biblical metanarrative by engaging the imagination through j r r tolkien s the lord of the rings as well as the hobbit and the silmarillion in this book i propose that j r r tolkien s the lord of the rings is a story about what jesus parables are about the good news about the return of the king as a work of imaginative fiction similar to jesus parables the lord of the rings can bypass both intellectual and imaginative objections to the gospel and pull back the veil of familiarity that obscures the gospel for many but when it is the lord who has something against the church it is not a laughing matter its time to tremble however as long as the love is more important than the disappointment you can work out just about any problem between you it is only when disappointment seems more important than love that relationship problems become toxic contemporary history and progressive revelation regarding the hebraic festivals are the basis for a renovation of the traditional historicist's house and its perception of recapitulation in the book of revelation which does not disturb the historicist's view that the papacy is the antichrist under this new interpretation john's use of recapitulation was modest as compared with the traditionalist's view the new view correlates the prophecies and illustrations of the seven seals with our modern day market driven society the prophetic era of the laodicean church the autumnal festivals and the the time of the end in daniel 8 17 the correspondence of the apocalyptic horsemen of the seven seals with the historical accounts of the protestant's rise to prominence and their termination of the church's influence in our modern day commerce is incendiary moreover the correspondence pertaining to autumnal festivals regarding the final judgment and the apocalyptic horsemen of the seven seals is no less provocative as is the case of all such correlations that come to light through progressive revelation they become a blessing for the sons and daughters of god and a reproof for those who walk in darkness revelation 1 3 the sacred heart is as simeon prophesied of jesus himself signum cui contradicetur like the title of his blessed mother who is in very truth mother of god it has drawn to itself all the assaults of heresy for it is a divine test of faith in the mystery of the word made flesh ut revelentur ex multis cordibus cogitationes those who have trusted with a yearning hope that the faith of englishmen in the incarnation at least was firm and clear were saddened and silenced when the pilgrimage to paray le monial elicited from some of the highest sources of the established religion a profession of simple nestorianism it was then that the first fifty pages in this book were published having been out of print for some time they are now reprinted as the doctrinal foundation of all that follows the devotion of the sacred heart has two aspects the one as the centre of all dogma the other as the source of the deepest devotion in this latter aspect it reveals to us the personal love of our divine redeemer towards each and every one for whom he died it is a manifestation of his pity tenderness compassion and mercy to sinners and to penitents nevertheless its chief characteristic and its dominant note is his disappointment at the returns we make to him for his love and above all his divine displeasure at the faults and sins of those who are specially consecrated at his service he seems to be sadly upbraiding us with the three doubting questions which he put to peter lovest thou me and to be looking upon us as he turned and looked on him when he had thrice denied his master into this part of the devotion of the sacred heart i have not ventured it has already been treated so profusely by others and by many of whom i have only to learn it is in itself so deep and intimately related to the personal life and mind of each that i have always felt it better to use but few suggestive words rather than to draw out devotional acts which to the writer are no doubt spontaneous natural and real but to the reader may be a burden like saul s armour to david in the following pages therefore i have intentionally confined myself to the dogmatic side of the devotion and for the following reasons i believe firmly that when divine truth is fully and duly apprehended it generates devotion that one cause of shallowness in the spiritual life is a superficial apprehension of the dogma of the incarnation and that one divine purpose in the institution and diffusion of the devotion of the sacred heart in these last times is to reawaken in the minds of men the consciousness of their personal relation to a divine master he has foretold the dimness and coldness of these latter days the son of man when he cometh shall he find think you faith on the earth s luke xviii 8 because iniquity hath abounded the charity of many shall grow cold s matt xxiv 12 in that day the disciples of the sacred heart at least will know whom they have believed
