the new peace treaty is a bible that says what it means the new peace treaty is a translation of the new testament from the greek that will make its meaning understandable and come alive it is written in 21st century language highly theological and often misunderstood religious terms are broken down to their core meaning chapter and verse have been removed because they weren t added until the middle ages the new peace treaty looks like a book and reads like a book the new peace treaty is in fact the bible but it does not look or read like most bibles this does not detract from the texts for many this allows the text to come alive for the first time it is the perfect translation allowing reflection and personal devotion it is also the first translation to look and read like what 1st century christians would have heard if they lived in the 21st century the new peace treaty not only helps christians read and understand the bible it is the perfect translation for those who are not christian it is hoped that this translation is a type of pentecost in print allowing readers to understand in their own language what jesus and the apostles preached and taught god does not speak to us in some archaic tongue and then holds accountable for what we do not understand god wants us to understand the word the same word who came to us as one of us and speaks to us in our own language god is speaking to you in your own language will you listen to what god is saying
